DAY

- EDMONTON to CALGARY to FORT MACLEOD to KIMBERLEY: Thursday, July 8. Your European-flavoured Holiday begins as you are welcomed aboard your deluxe coach in Edmonton. Meet additional travelling companions as you travel south via Red Deer and Calgary to Fort Macleod. Continue past the Frank Slide and through Crowsnest Pass to Kimberley for a three-night stay at the Trickle Creek Lodge, nestled at the base of the Purcells with a spectacular view of the Rockies. This property features an elevator, restaurant, pools and fully-equipped kitchen in each unit. Located adjacent to the golf resort. This evening we treat you to a fun FAMILY DANCE.
- KIMBERLEY: Friday, July 9. A morning GUIDED TOUR introduces you to the Bavarian City of the Rockies. Includes a tour of COMINCO GARDENS, the World's largest CUCKOO CLOCK, quaint MARYSVILLE and MARYSVILLE FALLS. This afternoon you may choose to relax and get acquainted with your home-away-from-home or enjoy the wide variety of festivities and entertainment. Daily coach shuttles are provided from the hotel to the Platzl and the Civic Centre. Last year's entertainment featured the SYLVIA MARIE BARBER CONCERT and a FAMILY DANCE featuring the ALEX MEIXNER BAND. The group's versatility allows them to play more than a dozen instruments which entertained audiences of all ages.
- KIMBERLEY: Saturday, July 10. A free day to either relax and enjoy the many amenities of your hotel or take a coach shuttle to the festivities. Cap off your Kimberley experience with another evening CONCERT AND DANCE. Last year's entertainment was the KIOTAC MASSED BAND, with conductor Bev Fess, who performed prior to the evening dance with the internationally famous EMERALDS DANCE BAND. The Emeralds have received countless awards and citations over the years but are probably best-known for their international hit "The Bird Dance".
- KIMBERLEY to FORT MACLEOD to CALGARY to EDMONTON: Sunday, July 11. Humming an "Oom-pah-pah", depart from your Bavarian hideaway. Retrace your steps, arrive mid-afternoon in Calgary and then continue to Edmonton.

YOU DON'T HAVE TO BE AN ACCORDION LOVER - COME FOR THE FUN OF IT! REMEMBER TO BRING YOUR DANCING SHOES AND A FOLDABLE CAMP STOOL!
